

WINBURN CHURCHES HOLD UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

The Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Winburne will hold a series of union evangelistic services during January 1923.

The first week's meetings will be held in the Methodist church beginning Sunday evening, Jan. 7. This will be observed as a week of prayer in unison with thousands of churches throughout the world. There is urgent need that the church of God release for the goal of the world the power of prayer.

That there may be unity of theme under consideration throughout the world the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, of which the M. E. church and the Presbyterian church are constituent bodies, has adopted in the main the message and subject issued by the World's Evangelical Alliance. We will use the topic, which follows:

Monday Jan. 8, Thanksgiving and Confession.

Tuesday Jan. 9, The Church Universal—the "One Body" of which

ing Business." This was perhaps one of the most instructive talks ever listened to by this body of young business men. Mr. Liveright defined and explained very lucidly the various forms of business partnerships, corporation, etc., with the advantages and disadvantages of each for the individual interested, be he partner or shareholder. It was the type of talk that one felt is a privilege to hear.

Christ is the head. Wednesday, Jan. 10, Nations and Their Rulers.

Thursday, Jan. 11, Foreign Missions.

Friday, Jan. 12, Families, Schools, and the Young.

January 14, Service in the Presbyterian church.

Beginning Jan. 15, the Rev. J. T. Scott, Ph. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Philipsburg, will preach each evening for two weeks in the Presbyterian church.

The success of these meetings will depend upon the united consecrated efforts and prayers of God's people. The pastors of the two churches speak the cordial cooperation of the church members and of all others interested.

W. C. T. U.

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Merry Friday evening. After reading of Scripture and prayer by President, Mrs. Howard read "November Gave a Party," a clever poem including many of the High Lights of the Great World's convention; written by Miss Long of Beaver Falls.

Mrs. Hile and Mrs. Funk read some of Clyde Kelly's ideas on Community Service, upon which he has written quite voluminously. Mrs. Chorpennig read from the Washington Letter of our Legislative Representative an amusing account of the presentation of the Wet issue to that august body, by Congressman George H. Thinkham, of also reported favorable answer from the Stevens Fund. Department of Justice and U. S. Senators in regard to not allowing the appointment of Charles L. McKeehan as Federal Judge, he being a native meeting to be held at the on the Wet Committee. Action was taken to send the usual amount to day the 11th of the month.

children drink it eagerly—
let them have all they want

Of course, the children like Angel-drink—for it's the world's finest chocolate blended into our rich milk, delicately malted. The taste is truly wondrous.

And Angel-drink helps to keep the little folks warm and lively through the cold weather. For in Angel-drink there's lots of butter-fat, which the body quickly turns into warmth and energy.

You can have Angel-drink delivered to your home daily or as often as you want it, by your milkman. Just leave a note in your milk bottle ordering Angel-drink. Take a bottle a day, pint or quart, for a week—and find out what a treat it is to the children.

A Nation's Tribute to Buick

There is no inspiring tribute to an industry in the universal recognition annually accorded the National Automobile Show.

Thousands come to these exhibitions from every corner of the continent and from foreign lands as well, and their advent is widely heralded the world over.

In the twenty-third National Automobile Show, just opening in New York, and later in Chicago, the nation is provided with a display of its chief means of personal transportation. This display is so complete and so magnificently set forth that all who come may easily carry away a perfect picture of the latest accomplishments in motor car building.

Year after year the national shows receive the homage of the entire country. Year after year they mark by their own increased magnitude and splendor, the increased growth of the automobile industry.

In occupying first place at both national shows for the fifth consecutive year, Buick continues the position in the industry awarded it by universal public opinion.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Somehow or other and strange to relate ye worthy editor of this publication cannot agree with all and sundry the divers things which appear in this column from time to time. The latest story to turn crosswise of the editor's ideas was our little fly at Rev. Hatch and his demand that the jail be made as fine a place to reside in as mita's boudoir, with all the medicaments, embellishments and what not to be poured from Clearfield county's "horn of plenty." The editor charges us with going far afield when we asked that the county home and childrens home both local institutions, be put in order and provided with necessary comforts for the inmates, who are there largely through no fault of their own rather than shed all our tears for the inmates of the jail, there by their own acts.

To the holy—all things are holy and the "Philipskins," as old Brown Barrett of Muttonville used to call them, must take their point of view regardless. We have tried many

DIVORCE NOTICE

In the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Penna.
William J. Blakely, Jr., vs. Grace Blakely.

No. 181, Dec. Term, 1922.
To Grace Blakely, Defendant above named:

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Court aforesaid, Master in the above stated case, to call before him, at a certain day and place, all and every person, who may be named by the parties, as witnesses in the said cause, and then read and examine each of the said witnesses upon oath or affirmation touching the premises and reduce their testimony to writing, and report the same to the Court, together with the form of a decree, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of his appointment, at his office in the borough of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of January, A. D. 1923, at 10:00 a. m. of said day when and where you may attend and produce such witnesses as you desire, and be heard in person or by counsel, touching the said cause.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

No. 340 Sept. T. 1922.
Jane McNally Goodyear vs. Joseph Goodyear.

To Joseph Goodyear, respondent: Take notice that the undersigned Commissioner, appointed by the Court to take testimony, and return the same together with a form of decree in the above case, will sit for the purpose of his appointment at the office of Chase & Chase, in the Keystone Building on Second street, Borough of Clearfield, on Saturday, the 20th day of January, A. D. 1923, at 9 a. m., when and where you may attend if you so desire.

A. R. CHASE, Commissioner

times, but can't assimilate that doctrine now.

Rev. Hatch may be right in his contention that something should be done at the jail—we rather think he is—but the mere fact that he expresses himself fails to satisfy us that all is as black as he paints it, and even granting that, the editor who accepts that position, swallowing the thing "lock, stock and barrel," ought to be right and in all fairness give the other fellow room to horn in with his objections and allow him to exercise his "from Missouri" prerogative by asking to be "shown."

The editor in his little bon mot charges us with going far afield and then travels into darkest Africa and Pennsylvania's Russia—Vintondale—for similes or parables, and replying to the "bloody footprint" tales from that coalfield, which New York reformers put forth, we feel like adding that Washington's Continental soldiers left similar footprints on the snow clad ground at Valley Forge, when standing for a principle as did those Cambria county miners and their families.

To further paraphrase the editor's remarks and to go even farther afield, we must say his position in that article and this controversy serves to recall to us the story of the worshippers in the temple when stalling through the cluster of poor publicans (no Republicans) the proud Pharisee, pulling the hem of his garment closer about him, promptly attempted to align himself on the Lord's side, while expressing his pleasure at not being such a dunder as the poor devils back near the door crying out for mercy for their sins. When the present-day Pharisee plants himself on the "right side," unfortunately for us, there is no other place to go—B. we're going anyhow.

The jail needs some cleaning up, with that we'll all agree, but if a fellow watches his step he'll not get in there—hence are we ready or willing to spend the thousands of dollars required to make it the palace elysium some reformers would have it? The principal indictment against the head of the State Educational Department in the last election campaign was to the effect that he was spending too much money on our schools. That being the case, how much money do the people of Clearfield county want spent to furnish luxuries and pleasant surroundings for her jail population?

If anyone doubts the progressive, ambitious spirit of the younger element of the Clearfield business men, let him take a look into the club dining room of the Jordan Cafe when the Commercial Club meets there. Last evening, although not a single member had a guest, the attendance was so large that extra tables had to be provided and in less than two hours the business of the club was transacted, several addresses were made and a fine musical entertainment given, to say nothing of the dinner.

The Commercial Club is filling a long felt need in Clearfield. It has been the agency through which the many complex problems facing the business men of the community—problems which would have reached out and affected every citizen—have been solved as they came up. So efficiently has it functioned that it may appear that they have done little untangling of yarn. This is because they have not permitted any yarn to get tangled.

There can be no complaint from any quarter on the appointment of George W. Woodruff as Attorney General in the Pinchot cabinet. Mr. Woodruff may not be well known to the average man but he has a record of good works and achievements. A life-long friend of Mr. Pinchot, he can be depended upon to carry out his policies in so far as is possible to his position. His service as Judge of Hawaii under Taft when Mr. Taft was Governor General of the Philippines was a trying task performed exceptionally well.

Governor Tener was a baseball star, Governor Sproul a football warrior, Senator Pepper a gridiron hero, and now comes George Woodruff, our new Attorney General, originator of a famous football play. Who knows but that one of our own football stars may some day be called to the seat of the mighty?

Are we to be content in Clearfield county with having our public institutions in such shape that all that can be said of them is "not as black as painted?"

Who is there who will stand up and say conditions are alright for this enlightened age?

Only silence has been the response to this query.

WHY YOU PAY MORE FOR CHOICE STEAKS

An average steer weighing 1,000 pounds yields 350 pounds of meat. About 95 pounds is loin, from which come Sirloin, Porterhouse and Club steaks.

Though other portions may be neglected by consumers, the choice steaks are always in demand and consequently they must carry part of the cuts least in demand.

THORN BROS.

If Back Hurts • Begin on Salts

Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat too much meat.

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders, etc., come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

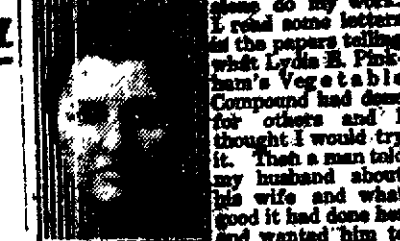

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Gained Strength, Weight and Now Doing Own Work, by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Marion, Ind.—"I was all run-down, nervous and beat over. I could hardly drag myself around. I read some letters in the papers telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I thought I would try it. That a man told me his wife and what good it had done her and wanted him to have me try it. I took one bottle and could see what it did for me in a week's time, and when I had taken three bottles I had gained both in strength and weight and was doing my own work. I took it because my last baby was born and it helped me so much. I am now glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who suffers from female ailments. For I know by experience what it can do. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, also the Liver Pills, too, and thank the 'doc.'—Mrs. Wm. Edwards, 629 E. Grant Street, Marion, Indiana.

A record of nearly fifty years service could convince you of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Several weeks before Christmas Mrs. Ed. Jenson baked a huge fruit cake and sent it as a present to Mrs. Castilberry, Mr. Benson's sister, at Portland, Ore. The cake had no more than reached its destination when a bunch of Curwensville folks residing in the coast city, smelled it out and then, glory what a feast was indulged in for an hour or so.

The Colonel E. A. Irvin literary society will hold its first session for the new year in the auditorium of the High School building on Friday night. All are cordially invited.

Prof. Grant Norris has been officially notified that County Superintendent Trostle has acquiesced to the voice of resolutions passed at the county institute asking for a change of date for the holding of the same. Next session of institute will convene in September, opening session on the 3rd.

Charles Irvin, of Sunbury, was a Curwensville visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al McNaul.

Mrs. M. F. Karstetter, who spent part of last week in Pittsburgh, returned home Sunday.

Willard McNaul was brought home from the Clearfield hospital Saturday where he had been taken for medical examination. X-ray pictures were taken and physicians decided that an operation for appendicitis could be avoided with proper care and treatment of the patient.

At an official board meeting in the M. E. church Sunday, after preaching services, it was decided not to hold the reopening exercises of church until the first Sabbath in February. Several prominent men are expected to be present at that time and lend assistance in the ceremonies.

Bethesda lodge of Odd Fellows is starting the new year by increasing its membership roll. Saturday night four candidates were coached in the work of the third degree and taken into full membership.

A large gathering of relatives and friends is expected to gather at the home of Mrs. Thomas Norris in Knox township, near New Millport, on Friday afternoon to join in celebrating that lady's 83rd birthday. She is the mother of Prof. Grant Norris, principal of our public schools, who with his wife and children expects to be present on this occasion.

The management of the Raft-man Water Company has issued a mandate by which every house in which city water is used will be inspected. Wherever leaking spigots or lines are found the owner or occupant of the dwelling will be asked to repair at once. There has been a vast amount of water wasted by carelessness, and an effort will be made to put a stop to it. Where water is used profusely meters will be installed. In one public building it was discovered that a larger amount of water was permitted to waste than was used. Hence the new order of conducting the system will be installed at once.

At the evening services, as a prelude to the sermon, in the M. E. church Sunday a short memorial service was held in commemoration of Hon. John Patton's 100th anniversary. Prof. Norris delivered a short and appropriate eulogy on the Christian life, charitable deeds and charitable benevolences of the deceased. Mr. Patton was born in Toga county on January 5th, 1823, died December 24, 1917. Rev. J. C. Collins also alluded to Mr. Patton as a man who had contributed more than one-tenth of his world's wealth to the work and advancement of the Christian cause and also of his liberal donations for education in Curwensville and elsewhere.

Mrs. Old Wilson, Mrs. Joseph Sice Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and son of Clearfield, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Snyder on Ridge avenue.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will hold a 25c lunch at the home of Mrs. Fred J. Dyer Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 p. m., Jan. 10.

ADA RUTH (KLINE) HOUSER
Ada Ruth Kline Houser, wife of D. R. Houser, was born in Girard township, Jan. 28th 1893, died Jan. 1st 1923, aged 29 years, 11 months and 3 days. In the year 1906 she moved with her parents to Bradford township where she resided until the time of her death.

She is survived by her husband, three young sons, Frank, Richard and Foster. An infant daughter preceded her to the spirit world Dec. 7th, 1922. She is also survived by her mother, two sisters and four brothers.

Mrs. Houser was a faithful and consistent member of the United Brethren church of Shiloh since early girlhood and will be sadly missed in the church and entire community, but while we mourn her departure we rejoice to know that she is safe in that celestial land where parting and tears are over for a crown.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. C. Moses, interment in Shiloh cemetery.

R. W. Thompson funeral director.

PILLS ON A PULLMAN

WHO put the "sleep" in Sleeping Car?
Nobody!

It was a PILL.

A pill made it possible to sleep restfully in a Pullman, and leave the train next morning with clear head, bright eyes—full of enthusiasm for breakfast and "pep" for the new day.

Here's how. Just before you peel down the sheets, take two Beecham's Pills. This is the pleasant, sure way to attune the organs of digestion and elimination to normalcy, and thus assure a night of tranquil repose.

Get health—Keep health—Feel fine by eating Kellogg's Bran regularly!

Constipation and the toxic poisonings that come from it not only take the enthusiasm out of life, making you depressed and physically and mentally dull—but they head you into disease, such as Bright's, diabetes, rheumatism, etc. You can actually rid yourself of these dangers if you will EAT KELLOGG'S BRAN REGULARLY—at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal.

Kellogg's Bran is nature's most wonderful food. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that as no other food can! Don't take a chance of "getting away" with constipation—IT WILL GET YOU! Destroy your health with pills and cathartics—they are as dangerous as constipation itself and give but temporary relief, at the very best!

When you should do for your family and for yourself to serve Kellogg's Bran every day, in any one of several attractive ways, and fight constipation as you have never fought it before!

AND YOU WILL WIN.

In the first place, Kellogg's Bran is delicious in its nut-like flavor, adding greatly to any cereal with which it is used. Eat bran as a cereal with hot milk, or mix it with hot cereal before serving. Another method is to cook Kellogg's Bran with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person. A popular way is to sprinkle bran on hot or cold cereal. Bran makes wonderful bakery products. Recipes are printed on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, restaurants and clubs. It is sold by all grocers.

Wherein All Is Made Clear

CHAPTER XII

Overcome with pity, I endeavored to utter some futile words, which she at once put an end to by an appealing gesture.

"You can say nothing," she began. "I have made an awful mistake, the worst a woman can make I think." "You love Dorothy; does Dorothy love you?"

"Oh, Dorothy!"

Regret, sorrow, tenderness, all were audible in that cry.

"How I must have made her suffer! I have been a curse to those who loved me. But I am humbled now and very rightly."

Gilbertine, passing at the door she had unconsciously approached, remarked gravely:

"I am going out of your life. Before I do so, however, I should like to say a few words in palliation of my conduct. I have never known a mother."

"Years passed. I was a woman but neither my happiness nor my self confidence had kept pace with my growth. Romance was my life and I had fallen into the dangerous habit of brooding over the pleasure and excitements which would have been mine had I been both beautiful and wealthy, when my aunt suddenly visited the school, saw me and at once took me away and placed me in the most fashionable school in New York City. From there I was launched, without any word of motherly counsel into the gay society you know so well. I found the world at my feet. Mr. Sinclair visited me, took me to theatres and eventually proposed. My aunt was in ecstasies. I, who felt helpless before her will, was glad that the husband she had chosen for me was at least a gentleman. He was not the man I had dwelt on in my dreams, and while I accepted him I cared so little for Mr. Sinclair himself that I forgot to ask if his many attentions were the result of any real feeling on his part. How I despise myself now for this miserable 'rivalry'!"

"All this time I knew that I was not my aunt's only one, that Dorothy Cameron, of whom I knew little but her name, was as a rival to her as I was. When I found that I was to leave her she sent for Dorothy. I shall never forget my first impression of her. From my first glimpse of her dead face, I saw that my cousin's friend had come and that marriage or no marriage, I need never be solitary again.

"I do not think I made as favorable an impression on my cousin as she did on me.

"I loved her, but from hardness of eye or an overwhelming egotism, I did not consider her beautiful. I never imagined for a moment that it was on her account you visited the house so often. I gave you all my heart, and what was worse, confided my folly to Dorothy."

"The explanation which I gave of the part I played in my aunt's death was true. I only omitted one detail, which you may consider a very important one. The fact which paralyzed my hand and voice when I saw her lift the drop of death to her lips was this: I had meant to die by this drop myself, in Dorothy's room, and with Dorothy's arms about me."

"Gilbertine," I prayed, "do not go till I have said this. A young girl does not always know the demands of her own nature. The heart you have ignored is one in a thousand. Do not let it slip from you. God never gives a woman such a love twice."

"I know it," she murmured. Suddenly I caught one last word whispered from the threshold.

"Throw back the shutters and let me in the light. Dorothy is coming. I am going now to call her."

An hour had passed, the hour of hours for me, for in it Dorothy and I came to understand each other. We were sitting hand in hand in this blessed little boudoir, when suddenly she turned her face toward me and gently remarked:

"This seems like selfishness on our part; but Gilbertine insisted."

"Our aunt's death," she continued, "will be a sort of emancipation for us. Gilbertine with all her spirit could not see Aunt Hannah's frown while I tried to have no wishes. I respect myself as shocked. She felt that she was living a lie and I feel myself in consequence."

"You may think I did wrong not to tell her of your affection for myself. I did do wrong, I see it now. How she flew to Gilbertine's room, and finding the door unlocked, looked in, and saw Miss Lane lying there asleep but no Gilbertine. How her alarm grew at this and how she had wandered over the house in the hope of coming upon Gilbertine in one of the down-stairs rooms. She turned back only to hear that awful scream go up as she was setting foot upon the spiral stair. She found it impossible to proceed any further, but clung to the fair rail, half alive and half dead, till she was taken up to her aunt's room."

When therefore she said, "You know the rest," I took her in my arms and gave her my first kiss.

The corner, who had seen much of life and human nature, managed with much discretion the inquest he felt bound to hold. Mrs. Lansing was found to have come to her death by a middle-aged interference with one of her nieces' wedding trinkets. The verdict was duly accepted and the heart of this tragedy closed for ever from every human eye.

As we were leaving Newport, Sinclair stepped up to me.

"I have reason to know," said he, "that Mrs. Lansing's bequest will be so pure not only to her nieces but to the world at large. Let me advise you to announce your engagement before we leave New York."

I followed his advice and a few days understood what he meant.

All the vast property owned when one evening chance threw us together. Instantly she turned upon Gilbertine had been cut off with me and said:

We never knew Mrs. Lansing's reason for this act.

The discrimination she showed in her will put Gilbertine in a very unfortunate position. At least, it would have done so, if Sinclair, with an adroitness worthy of his love, had not proved to her that a break at this time in their supposed relations would reflect most seriously upon his disinterestedness and thus secured for himself opportunities of urging his suit, which ended, as such opportunities often do, in a renewal of their engagement. But this time mutual love was its basis.

But how the magic was wrought I do not know till later and then it was told me by Gilbertine herself. I had been married for some months and she for some weeks advice, Mr. Worthington, but it was not that which led me to realize Mr. Sinclair's affection. It was a short conversation which passed between us on the day my aunt's will was read. Do you remember my trying to speak to him the moment after that word all fell from the lawyers' lips?"

"Yes, Mrs. Sinclair."

It was to ask him of a question—a question to which misfortune only could have given so much weight. Had he known that I had no place in her will? His answer was very simple; single word—"always." But after that, do I need to say why I am a wife? why I am his wife?"

BEWARE OF DRUGS

Medical Authorities Advise Caution
In the Use of Preparations Liable
to Contain Powerful Drugs.

Never drug your system to relieve
or prevent colds, grippe or "flu."
Drugs are liable to affect the nervous system or weaken the heart.

Hot medicinal tea is now recommended by many physicians, because it is best for the human system, acts
quickly on the bowels and intestines
by eliminating the excess poisonous
wastes that usually tend to lower
your physical resistance. Just pure,
refreshing, healthful herbs from nature, that is why millicious are now
using Bulgarian Herb Tea to relieve
and break up bad colds, and also keep the poisons flushed from the system. Many physicians now prescribe Bulgarian Herb Tea, and your druggist can honestly recommend it.

Reparation Commission Finds Germany Has Defaulted

ONLY THE BRITISH MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION VOTES NEGATIVELY ON ACTION WHICH MAY BE START OF WARChancellor Cuno, In Commenting On Action of Commission, Declares Germany Will Not Forever Bow to France; Military Plans Complete

HARDING CABINET KEEPING IN TOUCH

Paris, Jan. 9.—The Reparations Commission by a vote of three to one today found Germany voluntarily in default of coal payments to France during 1922. Sir Bradbury, the British representative, voted against the finding.This is the necessary technical action which was to precede France's invasion of the Ruhr valley and occupation of Essen. Marshal Foch's military plans were based upon action by the Allies.The Reparation Commission noted the French government of the Ruhr and it was semi-officially stated action will follow almost immediately, possibly tomorrow.American Observer Boyden made a statement to the commission before took the vote. He refused to discuss its nature but stated it made no reservation.The French government down immediately. The reporters of foreign as well as local newspapers were told of what France was doing.Berlin, Jan. 9.—France's proposed seizure of Essen will constitute "a breach of the treaty as set forth against a defenseless people," declared Councillor Cuno today in an interview with an American correspondent. He condemned France's course and simultaneously renewed Germany's offer to a peace pact.The councillor emphasized Germany's calm view of France's movement. "We shall not forever bow down to force and we cannot forever yield to threat, and thus go into an abyss."Washington, Jan. 9.—With the European situation, described in diplomatic quarters as similar to the crisis in 1914, that developed the world war, the United States government today considered recall of the American troops of occupation from the Rhine.President Harding and his cabinet are in conference at the White House and it is highly probable that the French move into the Ruhr and the difficulty of bringing home American troops, as recently requested by a Senate resolution, will be the foremost question to be discussed.Berlin, Jan. 9.—French Staff Officers arrived at Gumburg today, according to the German Government.
The troops are enroute.The City of Neuse notified the Government that heavy artillery and troops of pioneers and engineers arrived there.Paris, Jan. 9.—France held the most modern war machinery every-known ready for action today, as Germany was found guilty of default. Censorship almost like that of war times was established but it was impossible to conceal the cavalry, artillery and infantry and the massive array of the most up-to-date airplanes and tanks, which, for several days, have been pushed up to the Rhineland frontiers.It was reported that the armed forces already at Russeldorf and nearby towns are stationed there that the German mines and factories be not interfered with. According to the plan recently outlined by Premier Poincare the French propose merely to throw a customs barrier between France and the rich Ruhr coal fields and that customs be collected through French custom houses.Miss Leona Fulton spent a few weeks here at her home.GIRL DECLARES SHE RECOGNIZED M'KIN
AS HER KIDNAPPERBastrop, La., Jan. 9.—Morehouse
Parish was alive with disquieting rumors and reports as the open hearing for the murders of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards was resumed today.Guards were placed about the home of Addie May Hamilton, nine teen years old, who was kidnapped by a hooded mob and sent out of the city.Department of Justice Agents, during the night, received an anonymous telephone message that the girl was to be kidnapped during the night. Five men in an automobile called at the girl's home but were frightened away by the guard.The girl late yesterday in an interview said she had recognized Dr.
McKoin former Mayor of Mer Rouge charged with being an accessory to the Daniel-Richards murders, as one of the mob who kidnapped her.PHILADELPHIA HAD TREMENDOUS TRADE
AS U. S. SECOND PORTPhiladelphia, Jan. 9. (U. P.)— Philadelphia as a second port in the United States more than held its own during 1922 as the value of imports was $1,000,000,000 and exports $117, $30,117,000. Total collected amounted to $85,727,697.12.Imports have continued to increase notwithstanding the new tariff and custom officials are taxed to do their utmost to enable importers to receive their wares as soon as they pass over the vessel's side.INSURANCE COMMISSIONER DONALDSON RESIGNSHarrisburg, Pa., Jan. 9.—Insurance Commissioner Thomas Blaine Donaldson today sent his resignation to Governor Sproul to become effective January 15th, the last day of the Sproul term.Donaldson will become associated with Franklin Wort of Newark in the management of a lumber or insurance enterprise, it was said.

where she was attending a sick account of the serious illness of her daughter Hazel, a nurse in the Clearfield hospital. Little hope is held out for her recovery. She is suffering from acute Bright's disease.

tween operators and miners of the Doris Hahne, fifteen year old high school girl of Parkersburg, W. Va.,

Proprietor of the same place were for questioning.The girl, who planned to get mar-

Enjoyed By Music
Club Of The CityThe third meeting of the Clearfield Musical Club was held in the auditorium of the Susquehanna College of Music at 7:30 p. m. January 8th. It was a program of sacred music with the exception of the violin selections.
The program as it appeared in the but owing to illness in the families of several of the performers, it was necessary to change the program at the program which had been previously arranged for by the program committee. That was a solo, "Hear Ye Israel," from "Elijah," by Mendelssohn, sung by Mrs. Bruce Paterson.

Mrs. Paterson is one of the most talented singers that Clearfield possesses. She has had much experience in singing oratorios in Edinburgh, Scotland, before coming to this country, and the members of the club consider it a great musical treat to hear Mrs. Paterson.The rest of the numbers on the program were not arranged for until the day of the concert and the excellence with which they were rendered spoke well for the artistic ability of the performers.The program was as follows:—

BABIES BENEFITED

Harrisburg, Jan. 9. (U. P.)—In accepting the resignation of Col. Edward Martin, State Health Commissioner since March 1, 1916, Governor Sproul said a glowing tribute to the work of the department during his time it functioned under the direction of Col. Martin.The Health Commissioner's resignation last week saying that he wished to resignation to be considered effective Jan. 15.In his letter accepting the resignation, the Governor said in part:"It is characteristic of the Health Commissioner that he thinks in personal commendation of the results. It is fitting, though, that something be said of the loyal and enthusiastic team which he has surrounded and which he has inspired and which gives credit for remarkably achieved.""During the past 4 years the health department has greatly improved and effectively preached and achieved local health administration under central skilled supervision," he continued."It has secured the confidence and active support of the medical profession, the church, the school, civic and charitable organizations. It has enrolled thousands of our leading citizens in its campaign for a better health. It established correspondence courses for municipal health officers and the citizen at large, with an attendance of more than a million.""With an appropriation less than that of 1917, it has more than doubled its activities and usefulness.
This by the enrollment of the citizen body under its banners in the fight for health and life. The saving of dollars has been as nothing compared with the saving in lives and health."Referring to the Governor's letter a statement issued by the department today, summing up the work of the department under Col. Martin, said in part:"The death rate in 1921 was 12.5 per 1000 population—lowest in the history of the state. Effort to wipe out diphtheria has resulted in 1000 less cases in 1922 than in 1917, the case rate fatality being reduced from 12 in 1917 to 9 in 1922. There were 285,000 patient visits to the 160 tuberculosis clinics, and 13,292 patients were treated in the three sanatoria.
Deaths from tuberculosis have been reduced from an average of 126 per 100,000 before 1918 to 91.6 in 1921, representing a yearly salvage of 3,000
lives and a possible prevention of 30, 000 fresh infections. There are 480 health centers for babies in 250 of these in one month 13,960 babies were examined. Since 1917 the infant death rate has been reduced 20 per cent, a present annual salvage of 4,000 baby lives."BABY DIES ON WAY TO THE HOSPITALCharles George, infant son of Mr.
and Mrs. George Liddick of Dime-ling was taken seriously ill at his home yesterday. The parents unable to secure help of a physician brought the little one to Clearfield on the 4 o'clock train and haz-arded to the office of Dr. Woodside.
The Doctor finding the babe in a critical condition started immediately to the hospital but before reaching the hospital, the little one passed away in its mother's arms.
The funeral will be held at 2:30 tomorrow from the home of its mother's aunt, Mrs. C. G. Kozel in Boyaton Addition.

WINBURN CHURCHES HOLD UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

The Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Winburne will hold a series of union evangelistic services during January 1923.

The first week's meetings will be held in the Methodist church beginning Sunday evening, Jan. 7. This will be observed as a week of prayer in unison with thousands of churches throughout the world. There is urgent need that the church of God release for the goal of the world the power of prayer.

That there may be unity of theme under consideration throughout the world the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, of which the M. E. church and the Presbyterian church are constituent bodies, has adopted in the main the message and subject issued by the World's Evangelical Alliance. We will use the following topics, which follow:

Monday, Jan. 8, Thanksgiving and Confession.

Tuesday, Jan. 9, The Church Universal—the "One Body" of which Christ is the head.

Wednesday, Jan. 10, Nations and Their Rulers.

Thursday, Jan. 11, Foreign Missions.

Friday, Jan. 12, Families, Schools, and the Young.

January 14, Service in the Presbyterian church.

Beginning Jan. 15, the Rev. J. T. Scott, Ph. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Philipsburg, will preach each evening for two weeks in the Presbyterian church.

The success of these meetings will depend upon the united consecrated efforts and prayers of God's people. The pastors of the two churches speak the cordial cooperation of the church members and of all others interested.

W. C. T. U.

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Merry Friday evening. After reading of Scripture and prayer by President, Mrs. Howard read "November Gave a Party," a clever poem including many of the High Lights of the Great World's convention; written by Miss Long of Beaver Falls.

Mrs. Hile and Mrs. Funk read some of Clyde Kelly's ideas on Community Service, upon which he has written quite voluminously.

Mrs. Chorpennig read from the Washington Letter of our Legislative Representative an amusing account of the presentation of the Wet issue to that august body, by Congressman George H. Thinkham, of

Mas., and John Phillip Hill, of Maryland, showing they gained no encouragement, only the laughter of their colleagues and the frequent absence of Tinkham left the Hon.

Mr. Liveright defined and explained very lucidly the various forms of business partnerships, corporation, etc., with the advantages and disadvantages of each for the individual interested, be he partner or shareholder. It was the type of talk that one felt is a privilege to hear.

VALVE-IN-HEAD Buick MOTOR CARS

A Nation's Tribute to Buick

There is no inspiring tribute to an industry in the universal recognition annually accorded the National Automobile Show.

Thousands come to these exhibitions from every corner of the continent and from foreign lands as well, and their advent is widely heralded the world over.

In the twenty-third National Automobile Show, just opening in New York, and later in Chicago, the nation is provided with a display of its chief means of personal transportation. This display is so complete and so magnificently set forth that all who come may easily carry away a perfect picture of the latest accomplishments in motor car building.

Year after year the national shows receive the homage of the entire country. Year after year they mark by their own increased magnitude and splendor, the increased growth of the automobile industry.

In occupying first place at both national shows for the fifth consecutive year, Buick continues the position in the industry awarded it by universal public opinion.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Somehow or other and strange to relate ye worthy editor of this publication cannot agree with all and sundry the divers things which appear in this column from time to time. The latest story to turn crosswise of the editor's ideas was our little fly at Rev. Hatch and his demand that the jail be made as fine a place to reside in as Italy's boulevards, with all the medicaments, embellishments and what not to be poured from Clearfield county's "horn of plenty." The editor charges us with going far afield when we asked that the county home and childrens home both local institutions, be put in order and provided with necessary comforts for the inmates, who are there largely through no fault of their own rather than shed all our tears for the inmates of the jail, there by their own acts.

To the holy—all things are holy and the "Philipskins," as old Brown Barrett of Muttonville used to call them, must take their point of view regardless. We have tried many

In the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Penna.
William J. Blakely, Jr., vs. Grace Blakely.

No. 181, Dec. Term, 1922.
To Grace Blakely, Defendant above named:

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Court aforesaid, Master in the above stated case, to call before him, at a certain day and place, all and every person, who may be named by the parties, as witnesses in the said cause, and then read and examine each of the said witnesses upon oath or affirmation touching the premises and reduce their testimony to writing, and report the same to the Court, together with the form of a decree, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of his appointment, at his office in the borough of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of January, A. D. 1923, at 10:00 a. m. of said day when and where you may attend and produce such witnesses as you desire, and be heard in person or by counsel, touching the said cause.

No. 340 Sept. T. 1922.
Jane McNally Goodyear vs. Joseph Goodyear.

To Joseph Goodyear, respondent: Take notice that the undersigned Commissioner, appointed by the Court to take testimony, and return the same together with a form of decree in the above case, will sit for the purpose of his appointment at the office of Chase & Chase, in the Keystone Building on Second street, Borough of Clearfield, on Saturday, the 20th day of January, A. D. 1923, at 9 a. m., when and where you may attend if you so desire.

Rev. Hatch may be right in his contention that something should be done at the jail—we rather think he is—but the mere fact that he expresses himself fails to satisfy us that all is as black as he paints it, and even granting that, the editor who accepts that position, swallowing the thing "lock, stock and barrel," ought to be right and in all fairness give the other fellow room to horn in with his objections and allow him to exercise his "from Missouri" prerogative by asking to be "shown."

The editor in his little bon mot charges us with going far afield and then travels into darkest Africa and Pennsylvania's Russia—Vintondale—for similes or parables, and replying to the "bloody footprint" tales from that coalfield, which New York reformers put forth, we feel like adding that Washington's Continental soldiers left similar footprints on the snow clad ground at Valley Forge, when standing for a principle as did those Cambria county miners and their families.

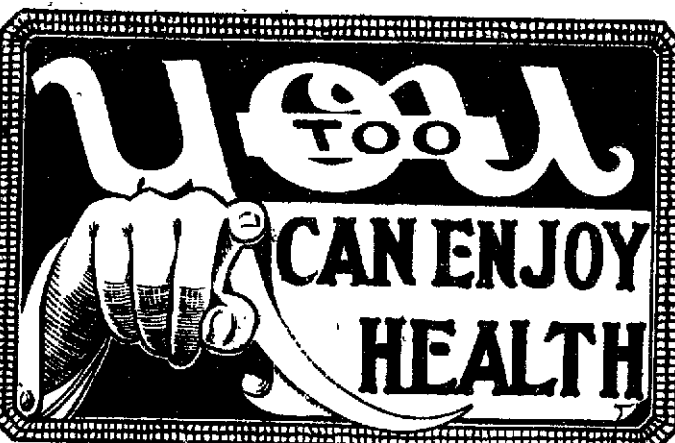

To further paraphrase the editor's remarks and to go even farther afield, we must say his position in that article and this controversy serves to recall to us the story of the worshippers in the temple when staffing through the cluster of poor publicans (no Republicans) the proud Pharisee, pulling the hem of his garment closer about him, promptly attempted to align himself on the Lord's side, while expressing his pleasure at not being such a dunder as the poor devils back near the door crying out for mercy for their sins. When the present-day Pharisee plants himself on the "right side," unfortunately for us, there is no other place to go—B. we're going anyhow.

The jail needs some cleaning up, with that we'll all agree, but if a fellow watches his step he'll not get in there—hence are we ready or willing to spend the thousands of dollars required to make it the palace elysium some reformers would have it? The principal indictment against the head of the State Educational Department in the last election campaign was to the effect that he was spending too much money on our schools. That being the case, how much money do the people of Clearfield county want spent to furnish luxuries and pleasant surroundings for her jail population?

If anyone doubts the progressive, ambitious spirit of the younger element of the Clearfield business men, let him take a look into the club dining room of the Jordan Cafe when the Commercial Club meets there. Last evening, although not a single member had a guest, the attendance was so large that extra tables had to be provided and in less than two hours the business of the club was transacted, several addresses were made and a fine musical entertainment given, to say nothing of the dinner.

The Commercial Club is filling a long felt need in Clearfield. It has been the agency through which the many complex problems facing the business men of the community—problems which would have reached out and affected every citizen—have been solved as they came up. So efficiently has it functioned that it may appear that they have done little untangling of yarn. This is because they have not permitted any yarn to get tangled.

There can be no complaint from any quarter on the appointment of George W. Woodruff as Attorney General in the recent cabinet. Mr. Woodruff may not be well known to the average man but he has a record of good works and achievements. A life-long friend of Mr. Pinchot, he can be depended upon to carry out his policies in so far as is possible to his position. His service as Judge of Hawaii under Taft when Mr. Taft was Governor General of the Philippines was a trying task performed exceptionally well.

Governor Tener was a baseball star, Governor Sproul a football warrior, Senator Pepper a gridiron hero, and now comes George Woodruff, our new Attorney General, originator of a famous football play. Who knows but that one of our own football stars may some day be called to the seat of the mighty?

Are we to be content in Clearfield county with having our public institutions in such shape that all that can be said of them is "not as black as painted?"

Who is there who will stand up and say conditions are alright for this enlightened age?

Only silence has been the response to this query.

If Back Hurts • Begin on Salts

Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat too much meat.

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders, etc., come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

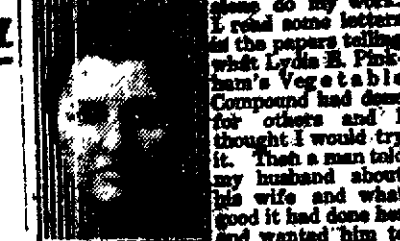

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Gained Strength, Weight and Now Doing Own Work, by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Marion, Ind.—"I was all run-down, nervous and beat over. I could hardly drag myself around. I read some letters in the papers telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I thought I would try it. That a man told me his wife and what good it had done her and wanted him to have me try it. I took one bottle and could see what it did for me in a week's time, and when I had taken three bottles I had gained both in strength and weight and was doing my own work. I took it because my last baby was born and it helped me so much. I am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who suffers from female ailments. For I know by experience what it can do. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, also the Liver Pills, too, and thank the 'doc.'—Mrs. Wm. Essmeyer, 629 E. Grant Street, Marion, Indiana.

A record of nearly fifty years service could convince you of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Several weeks before Christmas Mrs. Ed. Jenson baked a huge fruit cake and sent it as a present to Mrs. Castilberry, Mr. Benson's sister, at Portland, Ore. The cake had no more than reached its destination when a bunch of Curwensville folks residing in the coast city, smelled it out and then, glory what a feast was indulged in for an hour or so.

The Colonel E. A. Irvin literary society will hold its first session for the new year in the auditorium of the High School building on Friday night. All are cordially invited.

Prof. Grant Norris has been officially notified that County Superintendent Trostle has acquiesced to the voice of resolutions passed at the county institute asking for a change of date for the holding of the same. Next session of institute will convene in September, opening session on the 3rd.

Charles Irvin, of Sunbury, was a Curwensville visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al McNaul.

Mrs. M. F. Karstetter, who spent part of last week in Pittsburgh, returned home Sunday.

Willard McNaul was brought home from the Clearfield hospital Saturday where he had been taken for medical examination. X-ray pictures were taken and physicians decided that an operation for appendicitis could be avoided with proper care and treatment of the patient.

At an official board meeting in the M. E. church Sunday, after preaching services, it was decided not to hold the reopening exercises of church until the first Sabbath in February. Several prominent men are expected to be present at that time and lend assistance in the ceremonies.

Bethesda lodge of Odd Fellows is starting the new year by increasing its membership roll. Saturday night four candidates were coached in the work of the third degree and taken into full membership.

A large gathering of relatives and friends is expected to gather at the home of Mrs. Thomas Norris in Knox township, near New Millport, on Friday afternoon to join in celebrating that lady's 83rd birthday. She is the mother of Prof. Grant Norris, principal of our public schools, who with his wife and children expects to be present on this occasion.

The management of the Raft-man Water Company has issued a mandate by which every house in which city water is used will be inspected. Wherever leaking spigots or lines are found the owner or occupant of the dwelling will be asked to repair at once. There has been a vast amount of water wasted by carelessness, and an effort will be made to put a stop to it. Where water is used profusely meters will be installed. In one public building it was discovered that a larger amount of water was permitted to waste than was used. Hence the new order of conducting the system will be installed at once.

At the evening services, as a prelude to the sermon, in the M. E. church Sunday a short memorial service was held in commemoration of Hon. John Patton's 100th anniversary. Prof. Norris delivered a short and appropriate eulogy on the Christian life, charitable deeds and charitable benevolences of the deceased. Mr. Patton was born in Toga county on January 5th, 1823, died December 24, 1917. Rev. J. C. Collins also alluded to Mr. Patton as a man who had contributed more than one-tenth of his world's wealth to the work and advancement of the Christian cause and also of his liberal donations for education in Curwensville and elsewhere.

Mrs. Old Wilson, Mrs. Joseph Sice Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and son of Clearfield, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Snyder on Ridge avenue.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will hold a 25c lunch at the home of Mrs. Fred J. Dyer Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 p. m., Jan. 10. 1923.

ADA RUTH (KLINE) HOUSER
Ada Ruth Kline Houser, wife of D. R. Houser, was born in Girard township, Jan. 28th 1893, died Jan. 1st 1923, aged 29 years, 11 months and 3 days. In the year 1906 she moved with her parents to Bradford township where she resided until the time of her death.

She is survived by her husband, three young sons, Frank, Richard and Foster. An infant daughter preceded her to the spirit world Dec. 7th, 1922. She is also survived by her mother, two sisters and four brothers.

Mrs. Houser was a faithful and consistent member of the United Brethren church of Shiloh since early girlhood and will be sadly missed in the church and entire community, but while we mourn her departure we rejoice to know that she is safe in that celestial land where parting and tears are over for a crown.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. C. Moses, interment in Shiloh cemetery.

R. W. Thompson funeral director.

PILLS ON A PULLMAN

WHO put the "sleep" in Sleeping Car?
Nobody!

It was a PILL.

A pill made it possible to sleep restfully in a Pullman, and leave the train next morning with clear head, bright eyes—full of enthusiasm for breakfast and "pep" for the new day.

Here's how. Just before you peel down the sheets, take two Beecham's Pills. This is the pleasant, sure way to attune the organs of digestion and elimination to normalcy, and thus assure a night of tranquil repose.

Get health—Keep health—Feel fine by eating Kellogg's Bran regularly!

Constipation and the toxic poisonings that come from it not only take the enthusiasm out of life, making you depressed and physically and mentally dull—but they head you into disease, such as Bright's, diabetes, rheumatism, etc. You can actually rid yourself of these dangers if you will EAT KELLOGG'S BRAN REGULARLY—at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Kellogg's Bran is nature's most wonderful food. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that as no other food can! Don't take a chance of "getting away" with constipation—IT WILL GET YOU! Destroy your health with pills and cathartics—they are as dangerous as constipation itself and give but temporary relief, at the very best!

When you should do for your family and for yourself to serve Kellogg's Bran every day, in any one of several attractive ways, and fight constipation as you have never fought it before! AND YOU WILL WIN. In the first place, Kellogg's Bran is delicious in its nut-like flavor, adding greatly to any cereal with which it is used. Eat bran as a cereal with hot milk, or mix it with hot cereal before serving. Another method is to cook Kellogg's Bran with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person. A popular way is to sprinkle bran on hot or cold cereal. Bran makes wonderful bakery products. Recipes are printed on every package. Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, restaurants and clubs. It is sold by all grocers.

Wherein All Is Made Clear

CHAPTER XII

Overcome with pity, I endeavored to utter some futile words, which she at once put an end to by an appealing gesture.

"You can say nothing," she began. "I have made an awful mistake, the worst a woman can make I think." "You love Dorothy; does Dorothy love you?"

"Oh, Dorothy!"

Regret, sorrow, tenderness, all were audible in that cry.

"How I must have made her suffer! I have been a curse to those who loved me. But I am humbled now and very rightly."

Gilbertine, passing at the door she had unconsciously approached, remarked gravely:

"I am going out of your life. Before I do so, however, I should like to say a few words in palliation of my conduct. I have never known a mother."

early fell under my aunt's charge, sent away to school where I was well enough treated but never loved.

"Years passed. I was a woman but neither my happiness nor my self confidence had kept pace with my growth. Romance was my life and I had fallen into the dangerous habit of brooding over the pleasure and excitements which would have been mine had I been both beautiful and wealthy, when my aunt suddenly visited the school, saw me and at once took me away and placed me in the most fashionable school in New York City. From there I was launched, without any word of motherly counsel into the gay society you know so well. I found the world at my feet. Mr. Sinclair visited me, took me to theatres and eventually proposed. My aunt was in ecstasies. I, who felt helpless before her will, was glad that the husband she had chosen for me was at least a gentleman. He was not the man I had dwelt on in my dreams, and while I accepted him I cared so little for Mr. Sinclair himself that I forgot to ask if his many attentions were the result of any real feeling on his part. How I despise myself now for this miserable 'rivalry'!"

"All this time I knew that I was not my aunt's only one, that Dorothy Cameron, of whom I knew little but her name was as a rival to her as I was. When I found that I was to leave her she sent for Dorothy. I shall never get my first impression of her. From my first glimpse of her dead face, I saw that my cousin's friend had come and that marriage or no marriage, I need never be solitary again.

"I do not think I made as favorable an impression on my cousin as she did on me.

"I loved her, but from hardness of eye or an overwhelming egotism, I did not consider her beautiful. I never imagined for a moment that it was on her account you visited the house so often. I gave you all my heart, and what was worse, confided my folly to Dorothy."

"The explanation which I gave of the part I played in my aunt's death was true. I only omitted one detail, which you may consider a very important one. The fact which paralyzed my hand and voice when I saw her lift the drop of death to her lips was this: I had meant to die by this drop myself, in Dorothy's room, and with Dorothy's arms about me."

"Gilbertine," I prayed, "do not go till I have said this. A young girl does not always know the demands of her own nature. The heart you have ignored is one in a thousand. Do not let it slip from you. God never gives a woman such a love twice."

"I know it," she murmured. Suddenly I caught one last word whispered from the threshold.

"Throw back the shutters and let in the light. Dorothy is coming. I am going now to call her."

An hour had passed, the hour of hours for me, for in it Dorothy and I came to understand each other. We were sitting hand in hand in this blessed little boudoir, when suddenly she turned her face toward me and gently remarked:

"This seems like selfishness on our part; but Gilbertine insisted."

"Our aunt's death," she continued, "will be a sort of emancipation for us. Gilbertine with all her spirit could not see Aunt Hannah's frown while I tried to have no wishes. I feel respect was shocked. She felt that she was living a lie and that herself in consequence."

"You may think I did wrong not to tell her of your affection for myself. I did do wrong, I see it now. How she flew to Gilbertine's room, and finding the door unlocked, looked in, and saw Mrs. Lane lying there asleep but no Gilbertine. How her alarm grew at this and how she had wandered over the house in the hope of coming upon Gilbertine in one of the down-stairs rooms. She turned back only to hear that awful scream go up as she was setting foot upon the spiral stair. She found it impossible to proceed any farther, but clung to the fair rail, half alive and half dead, till she was taken up to her aunt's room."

When therefore she said, "You know the rest," I took her in my arms and gave her my first kiss.

The corner, who had seen much of life and human nature, managed with much discretion the inquest he felt bound to hold. Mrs. Lansing was found to have come to her death by a middle-aged interference with one of her nieces' wedding trinkets. The verdict was duly accepted and the heart of this tragedy closed for ever from every human eye.

As we were leaving Newport, Sinclair stepped up to me. "I have reason to know," said he, "that Mrs. Lansing's bequest will be so pure not only to her nieces but to the world at large. Let me advise you to announce your engagement before we leave New York."

I followed his advice and a few days understood what he had said.

All the vast property owned by this woman had been left to Dorothy Gilbertine had been cut off with me and said:

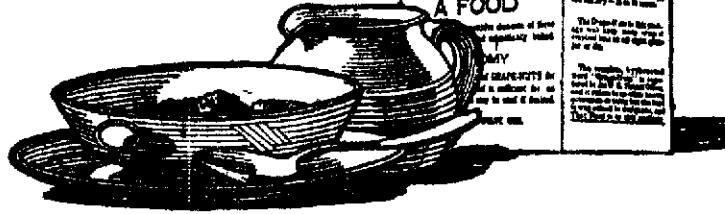

"You once gave me some very good advice, Mr. Worthington, but it was not that which led me to realize Mr. Sinclair's affection. It was a short conversation which passed between us on the day my aunt's will was read. Do you remember my trying to speak to him the moment after that word all fell from the lawyers' lips?"

"Yes, Mrs. Sinclair."

"It was to ask him of a question—a question to which misfortune only could have given so much weight. Had he known that I had no place in her will? His answer was very simple; single word—'always.' But after that, do I need to say why I am a wife? why I am his wife?"

BEWARE OF DRUGS

Medical Authorities Advise Caution
in the Use of Preparations Liable
to Contain Powerful Drugs.

Never drug your system to relieve
or prevent colds, grippe or "flu."
Drugs are liable to affect the nervous
system or weaken the heart.

Hot medicinal tea is now recommended by many physicians, because
it is best for the human system, acts
quickly on the bowels and intestines
by eliminating the excess poisonous
wastes that usually tend to lower
your physical resistance. Just pure,
refreshing, healthful herbs from nature, that is why millicious are now
using Bulgarian Herb Tea to relieve
and break up bad colds, and also
keep the poisons flushed from the system. Many physicians now prescribe Bulgarian Herb Tea, and your druggist can honestly recommend it.
